About the AU Wind Symphony

The Andrews University Department of Music offers many opportunities to participate in a variety of instrumental experiences, ranging from small ensembles to the Wind Symphony, performing sacred and secular music in classical concerts or light programs. Acceptance into all organizations is by audition. Performance Scholarships totaling $20,000 are available yearly to Wind Symphony members.

The Wind Symphony maintains a significant travel schedule throughout the Great Lakes area, and seeks to provide high quality music programs and concerts representative of Adventist education and Andrews University. In addition, the Wind Symphony periodically undertakes major tours out of the Great Lakes region. The Wind Symphony has performed in England, France, Spain, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Canada, and throughout the United States. The Wind Symphony is currently planning a tour to Italy in the Spring of 2016.

If you would like more information about the Wind Symphony, the Music Department's program, scholarships, or music careers, please contact Chairman, Department of Music, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI 49104-0230.

About the Wind Symphony Director

Alan Mitchell is an Assistant Professor of Music at Andrews University. His teaching responsibilities include the Wind Symphony and music education courses for the B.M. and M.M. in Music Education degrees. His performance organizations have performed throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. Mr. Mitchell has also served as a clinician, guest conductor and adjudicator throughout the United States. Prior to coming to Andrews University, he taught at Auburn Adventist Academy, Washington; Platte Valley Academy, Nebraska; John North High School, California; and in the Fountain Valley Elementary School District, California.

Mr. Mitchell holds both B.A. and M.A. degrees in Music from California State University at Long Beach. He is currently a candidate for a D.M.A. in Wind Conducting/Music Education at the University of Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music. His major conducting professors were Eugene Corporon and Mallory Thompson. He has received additional conducting studies from Michael Haithcock, Ron Johnson, John Whitwell, and Allan McMurray. He has professional membership with the Music Educators National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, honorary membership in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, the International Adventist Musicians Association, the Christian Instrumental Directors Association, and the World Association of Bands and Ensembles.

About the SMC Brass Band

The Southwestern Michigan College Brass Band was founded in 1992 by its current director, Dr. Jonathan Korzun. It is composed of area band directors, community members, and SMC students. It is a British-style ensemble modeled after the brass bands so popular throughout Europe. The SMC Brass Band gives regular performances at SMC and throughout Southwest Michigan. Off-campus performances have included the band's annual June concerts at Beckwith Park in Dowagiac, Ely Park in Hartford and at the Niles Riverfront Amphitheater, as well as its annual Holiday Concert at the Stevensville United Methodist Church.

The Brass Band is one of three bands at SMC. The Symphony Band and Jazz Ensemble are student groups that meet each Fall and Winter semester. The SMC Brass Band rehearses Wednesday nights on the Dowagiac Campus and its season runs from September through June. For further information about Music at Southwestern Michigan College, contact Jonathan Korzun at (269-782-1225) or jkorzun@swmich.edu.

About the SMC Brass Band Director

In his 24th year at Southwestern Michigan College, Dr. Jonathan Korzun serves as Director of Bands and Instructor of Music Theory. His duties include conducting the Symphonic Band, Brass Band and Jazz Ensemble and teaching the four-semester sequence of Music Theory classes. Dr. Korzun received his B.A. (with high honors, Phi Beta Kappa) in Music Education and M.A. in Music Theory/Composition from Rutgers University (New Jersey), and his Ed.D. in Music Education from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. A music educator with over 30 years of experience, Dr. Korzun's previous positions include Associate Director of Bands at Rutgers University, and instructor of conducting and student teacher supervisor at the University of Illinois. Dr. Korzun frequently serves as a clinician and guest conductor with area school music programs. He also has extensive experience as music director and conductor of musical theater productions with over three dozen shows to his credit. Dr. Korzun resides in Dowagiac with his wife, Donna.
