ABOUT THE ARTIST

Twenty-two-year old Rachele Gensolin was born in California, and began formal piano lessons at the age of five with Heidi Cerna. A few years later, she added violin to her musical studies. While studying under Nancy Adsit, Ms. Gensolin was a winner in several piano competitions in the state of Washington including the Olympia Chapter Concerto Festival in 2006 and the WSMTA State Recital Competition, serving as a representative of the Olympia Chapter to the Washington State Music Teachers Convention in 2010.

This past summer, Ms. Gensolin participated in the Montecito International Music Festival. She has also dedicated several summers serving as a music instructor in music camps sponsored by the Central Philippine Adventist College in both China and the Philippines. Ms. Gensolin is currently a senior at Andrews University and was a recipient of the university's Dare to Dream music scholarship. As a Dare to Dream scholar, she has been a member of the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra and currently serves as the pianist for the University Singers. In 2015/17, she performed with the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra as a winner of the Young Artist Competition, and in 2016, she performed with the Southern Adventist University Symphony Orchestra in their Concerto Competition Concert. Ms. Gensolin has also participated in masterclasses with Jean-Yves Thibaudet, Ian Hobson, Louis Schwizgebel-Wang, and Victor Rosenbaum. Ms. Gensolin is currently pursuing a bachelors degree in Piano Performance under the tutelage of Chi Yong Yun at Andrews University.
