ABOUT THE ARTIST

Donn LaTour began violin lessons at the age of 3. He studied for seven years with Mr. Jim Butler in Battle Creek, and then for seven years with Ms. Patty Kates from the Grand Rapids Symphony. He played in the Kalamazoo Junior Symphony Orchestra under Conductor Andrew Koehler for five years serving as concertmaster for two years. During his time with the symphony, he played in the Vitulare String Quartet, which opened the door to community outreach as well as an opportunity to play for Midori. He was selected three times as a winner for the Stulberg Masterclass, playing for Rachel Barton Pine (2012), Soovin Kim (2013), and Donald Weilerstein (2014). He is a winner of the Bravo Music Competition in Kalamazoo Michigan (2014), as well as the Spotlight on Youth competition (2009). Donn is a Bachelor of Science in music major at Andrews University, and a member of the University Symphony under Dr. Claudio Gonzalez, where he served as concertmaster last year. He was recently accepted to the Loma Linda School of medicine, and plans to pursue a career in medicine following completion of his studies at Andrews. He studies with Ms. Carla Trynchuk
