2010 Adventist Historians' Conference

This weekend Memory, Meaning & Faith regular contributor Nick Miller will be blogging the 6th Triennial Meeting of the Association of Seventh-day Adventist Historians. He will be posting evening updates on the presentations and proceedings at the campus of Washington Adventist University in Takoma Park, Maryland. The sessions will cover topics such as "War Mongering," "Religion, Diversity & Change in the West," and "Race, Ethnicity & Adventist Church Governance." We look forward to Nick's reports on the sessions he attends.

Nick will also be tweeting the conference at Memory, Meaning & Faith on Twitter, where, among other things, you can find out what it's like to take a 12-hour road trip in a minivan full of historians.
