Homeland..... arr. by Z. Randall Stroope

First stanza by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice

I vow to you, my country, all earthly things above, entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no questions; the love that stands the test; that lays upon the altar the dearest & the best:
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price. The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

Though the road has bends and turns, and my spirit suffers, humans fail, systems fail, shadows fall.

But the ruts run deep, cut by the blood of faces before and voices now silent . . .

But the message loud is heard: "Homeland, homeland renew your youth, restore your soul!"

Homeland, hold out your arms to me. I strive for you and give you the best I hope to be.

May your wisdom be your armor, your compassion be your sword; may your strength be forged with mercy, your courage lives restore. Homeland, the country that I love, forever reign supreme;

And when time stands still, my homeland, may heaven hold your dream.

The Andrews University Singers and University Chorale under the direction of Stephen Zork are ambassadors for the University - locally, nationally and abroad. Through concerts tours, television appearances and audio recordings, they maintain a high profile. Their repertoire reflects the international and diverse cultural threads that create the fabric of the university's celebrated and cosmopolitan family. Their recordings are regularly featured on the nationally syndicated radio programs "Sing for Joy" and "With Heart and Voice." And they have sung for the nationally televised ABC Christmas Special. The choirs can be seen and heard regularly on weekly television broadcasts from Pioneer Memorial Church.

Selected from amongst hundreds of auditioned university choirs, Andrews University Singers have performed at three conferences for the American Choral Director's Association. They have given highly acclaimed international concert tours throughout the countries of Great Britain, Iceland, Norway, Brazil, Zimbabwe, Chile, Bahamas, Bermuda and Puerto Rico. In May of 2016, select members of University Singers embarked on a 30-day tour through Turkey, Italy, France, Switzerland and Germany to perform church music at sites and in venues most associated with the early Christian church and the Protestant Reformers. University Singers have performed in concert with noted musical artists such as Bobby McFerrin and jazz pianist David Benoit. They recently performed with England's leading male ensemble The King's Singers for an American premier of two choral pieces composed by Bob Chilcott. Recent collaborations of the University Chorale with the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra have included Mendelssohn's "Elijah", Beethoven's 9th Symphony, Brahms' "A German Requiem, Handel's "Messiah", and Johann Sebastian Bach's "Magnificat" and "St. Matthew Passion". On April 25, 2015 they received a standing ovation for their performance of Mendelssohn's "Symphony No. 2 - Lobgesang" (Song of Praise).

"Perhaps that is why music is within people: So that they are not afraid, so they can be closer to one another, so they can find themselves in each other.

Because music is not only a gift, but also a service;
not only a work, but also a struggle; not only a mission, but also a message."

Carrie VanDenburgh, soprano, is a California native who grew up in a musical family, studying piano and violin from an early age. Although she loved to sing and grew up singing in choirs, she never thought it was something she would pursue until her high school choir teacher gave her a solo. Following her graduation from high school, Carrie studied with Dr. Genevieve Kibble at Pacific Union College for two years before transferring to Andrews University to study under the tutelage of Professor Stephen Zork. Carrie completed her Bachelor of Music degree in vocal performance in 2000 and obtained her Master of Music degree in Vocal Performance in 2002, both from Andrews University. She taught at Bridgman High School as the choral director and at Lake Michigan College where she taught aural comprehension, music theory, and voice lessons. Currently, Carrie VanDenburgh is serving in her seventh year as the choir teacher at Berrien Springs Middle and High Schools, where she teaches six ensembles. Her choirs continually receive Excellent ratings at the district and state levels. She is also the Choir Director at Harbert Community Church. She enjoys singing with The Three Divas of Southwest Michigan, a group that uses their background in opera, musical theatre, and jazz to entertain in the Southwest Michigan area.

Carrie lives in St. Joseph with her amazing and supportive husband, David VanDenburgh, her two boys Jakob and Joshua, and their dog Marlow. She also loves and enjoys the beauty of Lake Michigan, where she and her family enjoy sailing, kayaking, and paddle boarding.

Katherine Rohwer is a mezzo-soprano soloist, choral singer, and conductor. At the age of six, she began singing in church and community choirs and studied piano, voice, and drama. Katharine graduated summa cum laude from Western Michigan University with degrees in Choral Music Education and Vocal Performance in 2009. She is the Director of Choirs for Lakeshore High School, where she conducts four ensembles, heads the musical theatre program, and instructs music theory. She has conducted the Collegium Musicum of Western Michigan University, the Lake Michigan College Concert Choir, and prepared choruses for the Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra.

Rebecca Derbas-Selvidge, soprano, holds a Bachelor of Music in Choral Education from Western Michigan University and a Certificate of Musical Theatre Performance from the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York City. She is the Choral Director at Coloma Community Schools and Lake Michigan College's Summer Choir. She has performed with Gold Company under the direction of Dr. Steve Zegree, and sung lead roles in productions such as Grease!, Pirates of Penzance, Ragtime, and Urinetown. She has been the musical director of Sound of Music, Hairspray, Les Miserable, Legally Blonde, Spamalot, & Xanadu.
