12-2016

2016 December Newsletter

Nancy Rockey

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.andrews.edu/hrsa

Part of the Counseling Commons
Dear Family and Friends;

Well, this wonderful time of the year is upon us again, and is the opportunity to write a letter to connect with people we love. This is designed to allow us to keep you in the loop about us, and to hopefully hear from you!

Ron has been doing so much better. His IV’s, which our daughter, Sara kindly gives him weekly, of Alpha Lipoic Acid, and the addition of Vitamin B-100’s 3X daily, has made a difference, and I am sure that many prayers, yours and others, have been the biggest blessing.

Nancy - Well, I am just plain aging! Feeling tired too often and creaky here and there, but surviving physically and thriving emotionally. Ron and I enjoy each other’s company, and that’s a good thing, and occasionally we go “out” for a ride, a meal other than my cooking and love enjoying our daughters and their families.

We look forward to all the family being “home” for the holidays. Her son, Christopher is engaged to a lovely young woman, TyLynn and they plan on an October wedding in Santa Fe, at the famous church with the round staircase.

Naomi is working her full-time job and being a hostess at a restaurant several times a week in the evening. Bob is working too. Naomi’s extra job helped to bring Joshua, Megan and little Ezekiel James here, as a wonderful surprise to us. It is our birthday, Christmas, Valentine’s Day and whatever else gift. He is just too beautiful (handsome) and was such a joy to have with us!!

We continue to do SOME work with Fixable Life, but plan on handing over reigns soon to Karan and Eric Griffith. They are terrific! They have done a successful seminar in Alaska and have been facilitating Binding the Wounds, The Journey and Created for Success in expert fashion for 10 years!

Now, on to you . . . Christmas Holidays, while exciting for children, can be very stressful for adults and extended families. Because of being overtired from the preparation of this wonderful holiday and all its activities, people are more sensitive and tempers flare easily. It would be wise for you to remember that Law of the Mind that we have spoken of for years in seminars and on videos:

WITH EVERY PERIOD OF EXHAUSTION, THERE IS A CORRESPONDING PERIOD OF DEPRESSION, THAT GOES TO OUR WEAKEST POINT.

It is wise for you to write or type this out and put it on your refrigerator to remind yourself that emotions can easily be tweaked during this season, and we can end up saying or doing things we wish we hadn’t.

So you might consider making less goodies, running around buying the “perfect” gift, and wrapping until the last second before packages get opened. Conserve your energy for the sake of your disposition and for being kind instead of sharp or hurtful when you really don’t wanna’ be.

Stay Calm

And

Keep Christmas

Cheerful and Comfy

This has been an exciting and eventful year for this entire family, and for the nation and the world. Believers and non-believers alike have to admit that the world and our country and people as a whole have changed drastically. To be sure, there is a major change ahead for our country, and we are praying for Donald Trump (President Elect) and for his Cabinet, and for the nation’s response to his leadership.
We believers feel certain that the Lord will return soon. Of course it would be a joy to see the clouds part and Christ descending to call us home to live with Him eternally. At our age however, anything can happen. In either case, we will be delighted to see you again, whether here on this earth or beside the Crystal Sea. The reunions will be beyond comprehension and filled with utter JOY!

May 2017 bring you God’s peace, love and peaceful relationships with your family - after all, the way that we relate here, is how we will relate there- in the Heavenly Kingdom. God grant health in every arena of your life, and assurance of our love and caring for you!

Lovingly,
Ron and Nancy

If Your Teachable, You’re Fixable

Thru January 10, 2017

2 for $12, incl. shipping
Call: 1-575-336-8095