On Saturday, Feb. 24, 2018, at 7:30 p.m., Reggie and Ladye Love Smith will be in concert at the Howard Performing Arts Center on the campus of Andrews University. These internationally loved musicians have performed in more than 12 countries and at prestigious venues such as the Super Bowl, New York's famed Carnegie Hall and the Kremlin in Moscow. Their voices have complemented some of the top talents in both country and gospel music including Patty LaBelle, Josh Turner, Dolly Parton, George Jones and Lee Greenwood.

Reggie and Ladye Love Smith have been a part of the Gaither Homecoming family for over a decade, first as back-up singers in Nashville and later as a vocal duet featured on countless Homecoming concerts, tapings and recordings. Their versatile voices and broad range of influences lend themselves to a variety of styles, from country to big band to contemporary worship. With smooth, soulful vocals and impeccable musicianship, their communication beautifully reflects what is true of them both on and off stage... authenticity.

Tickets are available at howard.andrews.edu. Regular reserved seating for this performance is $15, seniors (65+) $10 and students (limit of two per ID) $10.
