

Opportunity to Visit Japan via COIL Tour

Undergrads are invited to apply for an educational tour and internship

School of Distance Education and International Partnerships | Posted on April 24, 2019

PLSC 237 Individual, State and Marketplace (fulfills general education requirement) with an emphasis on social innovation and cultural learning in Japan.

Collaborative Educational Project: Osaka City University and Andrews University.

This course is offered through Andrews University and JSPS Inter-University Exchange Project “Program to develop collaborative Japan-U.S. social innovators.” The course is based on Osaka City University students paired with Andrews University students in interactive teams visiting non-profit organizations, local government and local companies seeking possible solutions to problems in local Japanese society.

Dates: August 5–23, 2019

Sign up by May 6!