

Loan Forgiveness Scam

Campus Announcements | Posted on April 30, 2019

Recently, several advertisements on Facebook have announced that Andrews University approved full loan forgiveness to all former Andrews students. Please note that these advertisements are false and, instead, are an attempt to gain personal information for the purposes of identity theft.

We strongly encourage you to NOT share any personal information unless you have first verified that you are working with a trusted source. If you are uncertain of the authenticity of an advertisement, we invite you to email our Student Financial Services team at sfs@andrews.edu before responding to such advertisements.
