

Andreasen Center for Wellness Ribbon Cutting

Ribbon cutting/grand opening, Thursday, Sept. 26, 2019

Campus News | Posted on July 19, 2019

(Photo by School of Architecture & Interior Design)

By: Gillian Panigot, media communications manager & FOCUS editor, University Communication

The ribbon cutting for the Andreasen Center for Wellness will take place Thursday, Sept. 26, 2019. There will be an open house on Sunday, Sept. 29 and the Center will officially open for business on Monday, Sept. 30.

“I am extremely happy we are finally able to officially announce the opening of the new Center, and the whole team is excited to get ready to open the doors,” says Dominique Gummelt, director for University Wellness and executive director of the Andreasen Center for Wellness.

Tours of the Center are currently available on the following dates:

- Wednesday, July 24: 5 p.m.
- Wednesday, August 21: 5 p.m.
- Wednesday, August 28: 5:30 p.m.

Membership information is available at andrews.edu/wellnesscenter.

The offices of University Wellness and the Andreasen Center for Wellness are temporarily located in the red brick building across from the Pioneer Memorial Church parking lot. “Come and connect with us on a tour,” says Justin Neu, manager of the Andreasen Center for Wellness. We would love to show you the progress of the Center as we get closer to our grand opening.

Follow us on Facebook to stay up-to-date on employment opportunities, sales promotions and future events.”