

Sandi Patty in Concert at the Howard Center

On Sunday, March 8, at 7 p.m.

Campus News | Posted on March 3, 2020

Sandi Patty (Photo by artist)

By: Howard Performing Arts Center

This Sunday, March 8, at 7 p.m., the Andrews University Howard Performing Arts Center hosts “Simply Sandi: An Intimate Night of Songs & Stories with Sandi Patty.”

Simply known as “The Voice,” Sandi Patty is a highly acclaimed performer with five Grammy Awards, four Billboard Music Awards, three platinum records and five gold records. Patty is the most awarded female vocalist in contemporary Christian music history with 40 Dove Awards. Though her career is heavily rooted in the gospel music industry, Patty has also extended her musical genre and has performed with symphonies across the country and headlined the title role in sold-out performances of the musical “Hello Dolly” in January 2012. In addition to her prolific musical career, Patty is also an accomplished author of seven books, receiving the 2006 Silver Angel Award for her bestseller “Broken on the Back Row.” Join us for an evening with Patty as she shares her message of hope, life and love.

Tickets for this event can be purchased at howard.andrews.edu and are $35 for VIPs, $27 for reserved seating, $22 per person for a group of 10 or more, and $17 for students. There is a two-ticket limit if purchasing with a student ID.

For additional information, contact the Howard box office at 269-471-3560. For a full season schedule of events at the Howard Performing Arts Center, visit howard.andrews.edu.

Contact:

PR

pr@andrews.edu