This past Christmas we had more than 40 junior high students volunteer at the local Salvation Army. We were in charge of making the food baskets and delivering them to the needy families' vehicles. When it was all said and done, our student volunteers handed out more than 1,900 baskets.

Indiana Academy Awarded NCA Accreditation

Indiana—Perry Pollman, Indiana Academy (IA) principal, announced that Indiana Academy earned accreditation for the 2003–2004 school year from the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA CASI). The association recognized the school on Jan. 31 at its board of trustees meeting held in Scottsdale, Ariz. Indiana Academy joins over 9,000 schools across a 19-state region that were honored for attaining accreditation.

To achieve accreditation, schools must meet NCA CASI's quality standards, be evaluated by a team of professionals from outside the school, and engage in continuous school improvement focused on increasing student performance. The accreditation process is voluntary and must be renewed each year.

"Accreditation demonstrates to our students, parents, and community that we are focused on raising student achievement, providing a safe and enriching learning environment, and maintaining an efficient and effective operation staffed by highly qualified educators," stated Principal Pollman. "NCA CASI accreditation is recognized across state lines, which not only eases the transfer process as students move from accredited school to accredited school but also assures parents that the school is meeting regionally and nationally accepted standards for quality and successful professional practice."

Parents and interested community members can learn more about Indiana Academy and NCA CASI accreditation at the following Web sites: www.indianasdaacademy.org; www.ncacasi.org.

Andrews Launches New Academic Program in Campus Ministry

Andrews University—In July 2004, Andrews University will launch a graduate certificate program in campus spiritual leadership with two tracks—one in Christian campus ministry, the other in public campus ministry. If you work on a Christian college or academy campus or if you work with Adventist students on public campuses, this program is for you.

The 12-semester credit program of master's level work will be offered in two one-week intensives over three summers. It is possible to use the credits as electives in other academic degree programs such as an MA in religious education, MA in youth ministry, or master of divinity degree. A non-credit option is also available.

Courses will be taught by college professors and by professionals who are on the front lines "doing" campus ministry. Often the courses will be team taught. As in any adult-learning situation, students will also learn by sharing professional experiences with each other.

Now is the time to apply for admission to the program. Contact us for more information or to get an application packet at (269) 471-8618 during weekday mornings Eastern time, or e-mail us at campusleader@andrews.edu.
