A crowd of over 140 eager spectators gathered in the James White Library on the evening of Monday, Oct. 26, to witness the unveiling of the long-anticipated commissioned portrait of Ellen G. White by artist Harry Ahn. Ellen White, a co-founder of the Adventist church, was a prophetess, preacher, missionary, mother and author of over 100 original and compiled books. An interview between June Price, University chaplain and Justin Torossian, seminary student and great-great-great grandson of Ellen White, produced insight into Ellen White as a person. Ahn painted Ellen's husband, James White, a few years ago and was commissioned by Larry Onsager, dean of libraries at Andrews University (pictured at left with the artist), to paint Ellen White as a companion piece to the first.
