

Trickett's Thicket

On Thursday, May 20, a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held for the newly groomed walking trails known as Trickett's Thicket, located behind the Garland Apartments on the campus of Andrews University. The trails are named in honor of Andrews University alums Wilson and Verda Trickett. They previously owned the property and it was their dream to make it available to the community. (Photo by Darren Heslop)

