About the Wind Symphony Director

Alan Mitchell is an Assistant Professor of Music and the Graduate Music Program Director at Andrews University. His teaching responsibilities include directing the Wind Symphony and teaching music education courses for the B.M. and M.M. in Music Education degrees. His performance organizations have performed throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. Mr. Mitchell has also served as a clinician, guest conductor and adjudicator throughout the United States. He was recently awarded the Michiana Outstanding Music Educator Award for excellence in the field of music education in the Michiana area. Prior to coming to Andrews University, he taught at Auburn Adventist Academy, Washington; Platte Valley Academy, Nebraska; John North High School, California; and in the Fountain Valley Elementary School District, California.

Mr. Mitchell holds both B.A. and M.A. degrees in Music from California State University at Long Beach. He is currently a candidate for a D.M.A. in Wind Conducting/Music Education at the University of Cincinnati - College Conservatory of Music. His major conducting professors were Eugene Corporon and Mallory Thompson. He has received additional conducting studies from Michael Haithcock, Ron Johnson, John Whitwell, and Allan McMurray. He has professional membership with the Music Educators National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, honorary membership in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, the International Adventist Musicians Association, and the World Association of Bands and Ensembles.
About Charles Steck, Guest Trumpet Soloist

Charles Steck, trumpet, was recently the band and choir director at La Porte High School. Currently he is Instructor of Trumpet at Andrews University and Valparaiso University. He is a conductor of the La Porte City Band and performs in many ensembles throughout the region.

About Jay Crouch, Guest Trumpet Soloist

Jay Crouch, trumpet, graduated from Vicksburg High School in 1968. He attended Western Michigan University where he received a Bachelor of Music degree in 1972 and did graduate work at Northwestern University in 1996. After graduating from Western Michigan University, he taught at Brandywine High School from 1972 until his retirement in 2003. While at Brandywine, his bands were consistently received the highest awards. As a performer he has played with the SMSO, La Porte County Symphony, Bobby Davidson Orchestra, SMC Brass Band, the Ed Bagatini New Swing Orchestra, St. Joseph Municipal Band and the North American Brass Company. Recently he returned to teaching band at St. Joseph High School and Brandywine High School. He is also the trumpet instructor at South Western Michigan College.
About the University Department of Music Choral Ensembles and Director

The Andrews University Singers, is the select choir from the Department of Music under the direction of Professor Stephen Zork, and represents Andrews University locally, nationally and abroad through concert tours, television broadcast and audio recordings. Under his direction, the seven album recordings in the University Singers’ discography includes an array of musical and cultural styles from the early New England Christian church hymnody to choral music of Western and Eastern European heritage. Their repertoire also reflects the internationally diverse cultural threads that constitute the fabric of Andrews University’s celebrated cosmopolitan family. Their recordings are selected regularly for the nationally syndicated sacred choral programs “Sing for Joy” and “With Heart and Voice.” The University Singers can be seen and heard on weekly television broadcasts from Pioneer Memorial Church. They have sung for the nationally televised ABC Christmas Special.

Selected from amongst hundreds of auditioned university choirs, the Andrews University Choirs, under Zork’s leadership, have given three concert performances at conferences for the American Choral Director’s Association. They have also given highly acclaimed international concert tours throughout the countries of Great Britten, Iceland, Norway, Brazil, Zimbabwe, Chile, Bahamas, Bermuda and Puerto Rico. They have performed in concert with noted musical artists such as Bobby McFerrin and jazz pianist David Benoit. And they recently performed with England’s leading male ensemble, The King’s Singers, an American premier of two choral pieces composed by Bob Chilcott. Every year, the Andrews University Singers and University Chorale perform major symphonic choral works with the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra in the world-class Howard Performing Arts Center. Recent collaborations include Mendelssohn’s “Elijah”, Beethoven’s 9th Symphony, Brahms “A German Requiem,” Handel’s “Messiah,” and Johann Sebastian Bach’s “Magnificat” and “St. Matthew Passion.” They received a standing ovation for their collaborative performance of Mendelssohn’s “Symphony No. 2 – Lobgesang” (Song of Praise) with the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Claudio Gonzalez.
