Andrews boasts a 100 percent employment rate for both undergraduate and graduate students following graduation. Additionally, the social work program at Andrews maintains a 100 percent pass rate in students on both levels for the state licensure exam, with an impressive 86 percent passing on their first try.

Furthermore, the Department of Social Work offers its students relevant coursework which covers a broad spectrum of pertinent issues including classes on Diversity and Differences,

The social work program at Andrews received accreditation in 1990. This, combined with a student-to-faculty ratio of 9:1, earned the University 142.5 points out of a possible 200 in the scoring system utilized by the SWDG.

“We are in some very good company with other top Christian social work programs,” says Curt Vanderwaal, chair of the Department of Social Work. “Huge thanks for everything everyone has done to make our program one of the very best in the nation.”
